

1. Mystery Teasers.

Are you a good detective?

Do you like detective stories? If yes, these mysteries are for you!
Read them carefully and try to find the solution. Good luck!

Mystery 1. Old Mr. Tidy was found dead in his study by Mr. Fiend. Mr. Fiend recounted his dismal discovery to the police. "I was walking by Mr. Tidy's house when I thought I would just pop in for a visit. I noticed his study light was on and I decided to peek in from the outside to see if he was in there. There was frost on the window, so I had to wipe it away to see inside. That is when I saw his body. So I kicked in the front door to confirm my suspicions of foul play. I called the police immediately afterward." The officer immediately arrested Mr. Fiend for the murder of Mr. Tidy. How did he know Mr. Fiend was lying?

Mystery 2. A man was found murdered on Sunday morning. His wife immediately called the police. The police questioned the wife and staff and got these alibis:

The Wife said she was sleeping.

The Cook was cooking breakfast.

The Gardener was picking vegetables.

The Maid was getting the mail.

The Butler was cleaning the closet.

The police instantly arrested the murderer. Who did it and how did they know?

Mystery 3. Ray Whitcombe was found dead in his office at his desk. The police have narrowed the suspects down to three people:

Mrs. Barbara Whitcombe, Ray's wife

Mr. Jason McCubbins, Ray's business partner

Mr. Harold Nichols, Ray's best friend

All three visited Mr. Whitcombe the day of his murder, but all three provided the police with stories of explanation as to the reason for their visit.

Police found Mr. Whitcombe with his wrist watch still on his right arm, a torn up picture of his wife laying on the floor beside the trash can, and an ink pen in his right hand. On the desk, the police found a name plate, a telephone that was off the hook, and a personal calendar turned to the July 5th page with 7B91011 written on it. After examining this evidence, the police knew their suspect. Who was it?

Mystery 4. Detective Charles knocked on Mr. Ricky's door. It was a case of robbery.

Mr. Ricky's diamond, worth millions of dollars, had been stolen. The thief was very intelligent.

He first disabled Mr. Ricky's safety device and then stole the diamond. Detective Charles went to the safely guarded place where the diamond had been kept. He tried getting some fingerprints but failed to get any. Then Detective Charles tried questioning Mr. Ricky. Mr. Ricky said that he had been sound asleep when the incident happened, and he did not know at what time the diamond was stolen. Detective Charles then went out to question the keeper, the only other person living with Mr. Ricky at that time. The keeper said that he had been to his mother's place and did not have any information on the incident. Then Detective Charles walked around the house to see if he could get any more clues. Walking on pieces of the glass, he saw that the window was broken. After a closer examination he saw that the window had been broken with the help of a hammer. After some time, Detective Charles decided to arrest Mr. Ricky for faking robbery. How did Detective Charles come to know that Mr. Ricky had a part to play in this crime?

Go to page two and read the answers!

2-Mystery Teasers.

Are you a good detective?

Do you like detective stories? If yes, these mysteries are for you!
Read them carefully and try to find the solution. Good luck!

Mystery 1 Detective Thomas. Detective Thomas was called to a crime scene late at night for investigating a murder of a woman. The area was a gloomy area with no lights. The witness was the neighbor of the woman who said he had seen the murder take place with the help of the light of the full moon. Even though he could clearly see the full moon, Detective Thomas knew that the witness was lying. How?

Mystery 2 Dog Show . There is a dog show in New York City. There is a big labrador, a pit bull and a chihuahua. The winner of the dog show gets a big mystery prize. 10 minutes before the show, the prize is stolen by one of the dogs. The pit bull says, "I'm a guard dog. It's not my nature to steal!" The labrador says, "I'm way too big. I'd be spotted in an instant!" The chihuahua says, "I'm way too small! There is no way that huge crystal food dish will fit in my mouth!" Before the dog show, one of the dogs was punished harshly and disqualified for theft. Who did it and how do they know?

Mystery 3 Lemonade Stand. It was a very hot day, so Randy and Lina decided to sell lemonade. Being so hot, the pitcher of lemonade with half a dozen ice cubes was extremely tempting. Randy begged Lina for a taste, but she said no. After about five minutes of no customers, Lina went inside to get something that she'd forgotten. When she came back three minutes later, they had two customers. Randy poured them each a glass with three ice cubes. After the customers left, Lina noticed something. "Hey!" she said, "You drank some of the lemonade!" How did she know this?

Mystery 4 The Two Golfers. One sunny summer day two gentlemen decided to go golfing. After only a few holes both men hit their golf balls into the rough. Being good sports, they both walk into the tall grass and hit their balls and continue on with the game.

Some time later, one of the golfers falls terribly sick and has to spend some time recovering in the hospital. His doctor told him that he must have contracted the disease at the golf course. However, his fellow-golfer did not get sick and visited him several times in the hospital. Why did one one golfer get sick and not his friend?

Mystery 5 The Music Stopped.

The music stopped. The woman died. How and why?

Mystery 6 Rose Garden There once was an evil wizard. He took 3 women from their homes and turned them into rose bushes that looked exactly alike. He put them in his garden. One of the women had a husband and children and begged the wizard to let her see them. He agreed. At night he brought the woman to her house. In the morning he came and took her home. Next day the husband decided to go rescue her. So he snuck into the wizard's garden. He looked and looked at the 3 identical rose bushes trying to figure out which could be his wife. Suddenly he knew the answer and he took his wife home. How did he know which rose bush was his wife?

Go to page two and
read the answers!

3- Mystery Teasers.

Are you a good detective?

Do you like detective stories? If yes, these mysteries are for you!
Read them carefully and try to find the solution. Good luck!

Mystery 1 Poor George George is dead. He was found face down in the street, squashed nearly flat. He must have been there some time as he was cool to the touch. In addition, when he was found, there was a bird perched on the back of his head.

Who is George?

Mystery 2 Roller Coaster A father took his sons to an amusement park one day. He told them to meet him at the entrance at 5:00 later that day. When the kids finally showed up at the end of the day, it was 5:30. The father said that he was angry and wouldn't take them again for a whole month. One of the boys said, "Wait, it wasn't our fault! We were on a roller coaster, but as we went down the first hill the engine blew out!" After thinking for a while, he grounded the boys. How did he know they were lying?

Mystery 3 Sherlock Holmes One snowy night, Sherlock Holmes was in his house sitting by a fire. All of a sudden a snowball came crashing through his window, breaking it. Holmes got up and looked out the window just in time to see three neighborhood kids who were brothers run around a corner. Their names were John Crimson, Mark Crimson and Paul Crimson. The next day Holmes got a note on his door that read "? Crimson. He broke your window."

Which of the three Crimson brothers should Sherlock Holmes question about the incident?

Mystery 4 Train Problem Elliot the detective heard the news of a double murder that occurred on a train. "The driver and the conductor were on the opposite ends of the train, but both were shot at the same time", reported a policeman who was at the center of the train at the time. The policeman had heard both gunshots at the same time. The train was travelling 150 kilometers per hour. Elliot immediately realized that the driver and the conductor were not killed at the same time. How is it so?

Mystery 5 Susan's Last Stand Susan Cofferred was not liked very much so no one was surprised when she was found dead. She had been murdered in the Church car park right in the middle of the main Sunday Service. A single shot had done the deed, and it had obviously been fired from way up in the bell tower, some 75 feet high, right at the other end of the Church. When the detective in charge of the case had finished examining the scene, his assistant had eliminated all but three suspects. Rev Don Whiteshire had always disliked the way she showed off, making everyone else feel very silly, during her work at the Church. Carol Magson didn't like how she was made to feel inferior since their aunt had left Susan some money. Susan always had more money to spend than Carol. Lord Victor Shiling was very angry at the way he heard Susan constantly humiliating him because of his disability. When all three were finished the detective in charge of this mystery knew who the culprit was. Who was the culprit? What

Go to page two and read the answers!